

Overview: Welcome to BTEC Health and Social. The bridge between GCSE and A level is a big step up, it is also an exciting one.

This year you will look at development of humans and the factors that affect their development from environmental, to biological social and economical what creates us a people. You will then start to look At various areas of Health and social care and how people access it and how they are supported

Year 12

Health and Social Care BTEC

Unit 1: Human Lifespan Development (Term 1)

Topic A: Human growth and development through the life stages. – explore physical, Intellectual, emotional and social development across the life stages,

Topic B: Factors affecting human growth and development. – the nature/nurture debate by looking at genetic, environmental, economic and social factors that affect human growth and development

Topic C: Effects of ageing – looking in detail at the physical changes, psychological change and societal effects of an ageing population

Assessment (End of unit tests and external Exam in Jan or June)

Unit 5: Meeting Individual Care and Support Needs

(Terms 2 +3)

Topic A: Examine principles, values and skills which underpin meeting the care and support needs of individuals

Topic B: Examine the ethical issues involved when providing care and support to meet individual needs

Topic C: Investigate the principles behind enabling individuals with care and support needs to overcome challenge

Topic D: Investigate the roles of professionals and how they work together to provide the care and support necessary to meet individual need.