

Overview: Welcome to BTEC Health and Social. The bridge between GCSE and A level is a big step up, it is also an exciting one.

This year you continue to explore the world of work in health and social care and how we meet individual needs, you will then look at Physiological Disorders and their Care focussing on specific examples.

Year 13

Health and Social Care BTEC

Unit 14: Physiological Disorders and their Care (Term 2)

Topic A: Investigate the type causes and effects of physiological disorders.

Topic B: Examine the investigation and diagnosis of physiological disorders.

Topic C: Examine treatment and support for service users with physiological disorders

Topic D: Develop a treatment plan for service users with physiological disorders to meet their need

Term 1

Unit 2: Working in Health and Social Care

Topic A: The roles and responsibilities of people who work in the health and social care sector- responsibilities, Specific responsibilities, Multidisciplinary working, and Monitoring the work

Topic B: The roles of organisations in the health and social care sector – roles or organisation's, Issues that affect access, Ways organisations represent interests and regulation and Responsibilities of organisations

Topic C: Working with people with specific needs in the health and social care sector – specific needs and practices

Term 3

Will be used to complete any outstanding assignment work and if needed revise for any resits of external exams..