Thank you to all parents who attended Year 10 parents evening last night. I hope you all had a positive and successful evening discussing your child's progress. Thank you also for your positive comments about Headlands School and the great work we do here.

Mrs Bone's Newsflash

Next Thursday we will welcome back to Headlands School to deliver assemblies to all students, the charity "OddBalls."

Their story started in 2014 with the intention of raising awareness for Testicular Cancer.

Since then they have gone on to stand for so much more than this. "OddBalls" has become a brand that supports a number of causes and breaks down the usual stigma associated with mental and physical health.

The "OddBalls" family is about diversity and inclusion, if you follow them on social media you will see how the charity embraces everyone in society.

Their aim is to donate over £1,000,000 to charities by 2023 and with your help they WILL do it.

You can find out more about the charity here:
