

Assessment in Music

At KS3 students are assessed through performances and compositions they prepare and perform in class. They are then assessed on accuracy and complexity in their playing (solo and ensemble) and their application of musical elements and style to the composition process. This is marked numerically out of 40 each term.