

Message from Mrs Stamford

This week myself and Mr Woolley have been monitoring students learning in their classrooms. We have seen a variety of content, subjects and students producing some phenomenal work and grappling with some really tricky concepts. We have seen expert modelling from staff which in turn has led to expert students in classrooms. Myself and Mr Woolley have been really proud of our amazing students this week, their engagement and enthusiasm has been an absolute pleasure and delight to see.

Today our Year 12 students are enjoying a day out at The University of York looking at the options that are available to them as a University student. The day always provides a valuable insight into the courses available, the independence that University life brings and the opportunities available to them in their next steps.

On 24 February 5pm-7pm there is an East Riding parent/carer workshop from the Mental Health support team. The online workshop is around recognising behaviour as a form of communication and will explore how children's behaviour can reflect underlying needs, emotions, and communication styles. To sign up for the online workshop please sign up using the following link:

Can I also please remind parents that there are 'No Stopping' signs at the bottom of the drive on Sewerby Road where the yellow zigzags are painted. The 'No Stopping' signs are in force between 8am-9am Monday-Friday. I appreciate morning drop off is a busy time but if you could refrain from stopping here it would help myself and Mrs Bone manage the safety of our students in a morning.

Mrs Bone's Newsflash

This week's assemblies have continued our Spring Term theme on Digital Literacy with a focus on social media and body image. I shared a video link with students which can be found here -

https://players.brightcove.net/4934638104001/SJzlxlhi_default/index.html?videoId=5302446919001 and encouraged students to embrace their differences, think carefully about who they share "selfies" with and why, and to consider that they don't need to use filters when they post and just to be themselves.

I also used my assemblies this week as an opportunity to remind students of the importance of staying safe online and to recognise the significance of in person friendships and family relationships and how they should take priority over "virtual" ones.

Next week Mr Woolley (Deputy Head) will lead Assemblies on the dangers of online Gambling.

Have a good weekend,

Mrs Bone
